St. Valentine Tea Given by Ladies of Miriam Chapter No. 14 O. E. S.

Springtime weather and lovely thoughts of St. Valentine's past activities in the minds of fifteen hostesses combined as potent factors in the entertainment of a large company of Eastern Star members at the Miriam chapter tea in the Masonic temple Monday afternoon, making it one of the most enjoyable affairs of the season. Two violin solos, Schumann's "Träumerei" and "Dear Little Boy of Mine," were sweetly rendered by Miss Annette Cunningham, accompanied by Miss Marva McBride, pianist, after which "The Clivies"—a poem describing the dubious state of a doughboy since quitting the uniform—was charmingly read by Mrs. Archie Bowman.

Don't You Know

Don't you know that Ogden people look upon Skaggs' stores as public benefactors? Don't you know that Skaggs' stores have broken up Ogden's grocery trust and were of benefit to every citizen of Weber county? Haven't you heard that our markets were opened originally solely for the purpose of reducing meat prices for our grocery patrons? Even the children of Ogden think of Skaggs and cheap prices simultaneously. If ours were the only stores in Ogden we would still cut the prices, we believe in it. Its part of our nature. Besides it is good business for us and beneficial to our patrons.

OUR MEATS are more than just "choice meats." We sell only extra good quality meats every day in the week.
